Jacksonville Male and Female Seminary.

BENJAMIN J. TENNEY, A. M., Principal.
Miss ELIZA HESTER, Instructress in Female Department.

The Trustees are happy to announce that this Institution is now permanently established, and in a flourishing condition. Testimonials of the highest character warrant them in saying that the qualifications of the Teachers whom they have engaged, are such as to ensure, to all who may patronize the institution, the advantages of systematic and thorough instruction.

A large and commodious building has been erected with separate rooms, and ample accommodations for both the Male and Female Departments.

A very extensive and complete Apparatus has been provided for the illustration of the different branches of Natural Philosophy, Chemistry, &c. Frequent lectures will be Given, with experiments in the various branches of Physical Science, throughout the Academic year, which commenced on the 4th inst.

An excellent Piano is furnished for the use of Pupils in Music.

The course of study will be as extensive as in any similar institution in the State. Pupils may here pursue all branches necessary to fit them for an advanced standing in any College in the Union.

From the encouragement which this school has heretofore met with, the Trustees have thought proper to make a considerable deduction in the fees for tuition, which will be as follows per session:

THE WILMINGTON JOURNAL.

WILMINGTON, N. C., FRIDAY, NOV. 5, 1852.

The Presidential Election—Pierce & King Elected.
The telegraphic wires have flooded us with reports from nearly all the States North and West, and some South of us. Their complexion is so uniform as hardly to require comment. Everything seems to have gone one way, and that so overwhelmingly, as to leave no sort of doubt, or showing for General Scott. There is a certainty that Pierce's majority will be greater than that of any President who has ever been elected, and will considerably exceed Scott's whole vote. It is probable that not more than five States, if so many, have gone for the old General.

It is impossible to tell how this State has gone. Our opinion is now the same as it was before the election, and that is that North Carolina has gone for the Democrats, although by a less majority than Gov. Reid obtained in August. The vote in the State has not been so large as at that election, there being no local excitement or canvasses to carry and bring out all the people. Some of our strong Democratic counties which have been heard from have not done so well for Pierce as they did for Reid, because as large a vote was not polled; but on the other hand the same state of things, no doubt, exist in the strong Whig counties, and Scott will not get as large a vote as Kerr. We put down the State for Pierce and King by three thousand. Neither candidate will obtain within four thousand of Reid's vote.

Upon the whole, the result is just as we had anticipated ever since the nomination—only a little more so. The news is so good, and we are so pleased therewith, that we feel in good humor with all the world and the rest of mankind, and enjoy our victory without caring to hurt the feelings of those who differ from us. The Democrats can afford to be generous in their victory, for so great a victory, we venture to say, has never been seen in the United States.

The Election on Tuesday.

The die is now cast, and some one or other of the candidates has been elected. Unfortunately the telegraph wire between here and Weldon is down at the 97th mile post, and will not be up until the train which left here at 8 o'clock this morning reaches that point, say between twelve and one; we cannot, therefore, get any despatches until the afternoon.

The election in this place passed off very quietly, yet with considerable animation. Our Democratic friends here worked manfully, and if there be a better set of Democrats anywhere we should like to see them. The vote polled was 897. The number counted was 896; in one case two ballots were put in, which of course was rejected in counting. This vote was divided as follows: Pierce and King 596; Scott and Graham 296, and four blank. Those put down as blanks had simply the name of Mr. Fillmore for President, and Mr. Graham or Mr. Jenkins as Vice President. The Democratic majority is 300—Democratic gain 108. It being Court week, there were some voters in from the country.

There is a falling off in the various precincts out of town nearly equal to the gain in town. The whole majority in the county foots up 1017—a gain of twenty-five votes on Reid's majority, the largest ever before given. Masonboro' has done gloriously, giving fifty for Pierce and King and thirty-eight for Scott and Graham—and this in spite of every exertion to carry at least that one precinct for Scott and Graham. Our gallant friends met them there, and overcame them.

The Whig majority in Brunswick is reduced 22 votes.

From up the Road, there are contradictory reports—some of considerable Democratic gains—and some again, of considerable Democratic losses. The aggregate vote in Duplin is smaller than it was at the August election, with a Democratic loss of 140 votes. Sampson, so far as rumors go, shows a small Democratic loss. Wayne loses over one hundred, but Edgecombe and Nash gain two hundred.

Reports of falling off in Wayne and Edgecombe, are looked upon as purely apocryphal. To-morrow will bring a mass of mail and telegraphic news.

The Meeting and Procession Last Monday Night.
Monday night the Democrats had the largest and most enthusiastic turn out which has ever been seen in Wilmington. The procession was formed in Market street, about seven o'clock, and marched round to Major Walker's Yard, on Princess street, where proper arrangements had been made for speaking; and where H. L. Holmes, Esq., did speak in a style that might truly be called speaking. He made a talk as was a talk—able and eloquent—humorous and satirical.

At the close of Mr. Holmes' remarks, the procession was formed again, and marched down Front to Market, up Market to Fourth, down Fourth to the lower end of town almost, then down to Front, up Front to the Railroad, then counter-marched and came down to the Carolina Hotel, where S. J. Person, Eli W. Hall, and John L. Holmes, Esqs., and Hon. Wm. S. Ashe, made glorious rallying speeches. Capt. McCowan of the United States Army was noticed on the balcony of the Hotel, and a call was made upon him, to which he responded in a few remarks. He said that he was a Whig—he was born a Whig—all his kind and kin were Whigs; but still where he could vote, his ballot should be cast for Franklin Pierce. He had served with him—had seen him in battle—had received the warm grasp of his hand, and knew that a braver or more noble man never breathed. The gallant Captain was rapturously applauded.

Frank Johnson's Band was at the head of the column, but as the band had to toil on without being cheered by its enlivening strains. It was too far off. At last a detachment was sent to the middle, and there it got within a little less than half a mile of us. By the way, there was a very handsome new transparency in front, painted by Mr. Massillon. Processions are usual, y' estimated too largely, and therefore a gentleman, who knew almost every man in the county who has a right to vote, counted the number in ours. There was close on to seven hundred voters, and others not certain as such, swelled the ranks to about a thousand persons.

The Scott and Graham men had also a rally all around in general, and upon the whole they did very well. They came out strong under the circumstances, and we think succeeded in rallying rather over one-fourth as many men into their ranks as we had in ours, and one way and another they made a right good showing considering, and at a distance boys carried torches as well as men.

But it is all over now, and bragging or rejoicing is not the thing. Voting is the business. The ballot-box is now the stern arbiter to which all must bow. Let us work like men according to our convictions and submit to the decision of the people, when it has been ascertained, like patriots.

W. & R. B. R. Stock.—We learn that thirty-three shares of Wilmington and Raleigh Railroad Stock were sold last week at public auction in Hall-

NEW HASSETT COUNTY OFFICIALS.
